JOB POSTING FOR PROJECT ARCHITECT

ABOUT US

Liederbach & Graham, Architects is a mid-size design firm focused on producing beautiful work which is built to endure. Our Chicago-based studio produces projects in this city, its suburbs, and throughout the United States. The work of Liederbach & Graham has been honored with awards at the local, regional and national level. Please visit our website www.liederbachandgraham.com

We maintain a loft studio surrounded by many, many books, in Chicago's River North design hub.

ABOUT THE JOB

We seek a Project Architect with a strong interest in traditional and Classical single-family residential architecture. Most of our projects are carefully studied and detailed luxury residences, but the firm also has an interest in university and select institutional work undertaken with similar care. The individual would work with a principal and manage a team from schematic design through project completion and:

- Collaborate with other professionals and consultants and coordinate the final work product.
- Play a lead role in ensuring that the design meets client's schedule and budget and exceeds their expectations.
- Represent our firm well to our clients, consultants, and municipal authorities.
- Demonstrate a deep understanding of the technical requirements of projects.
- Has the connoisseurship to develop the design such that all details, materials, mouldings, etc. are consistent with the style of each individual project.

DESIRED SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Architecture
- Minimum 8 to 12 years of architectural experience with 5 years as Project Architect.
- A deep technical understanding of and proficiency in construction detailing.
- Prior experience in high-end single family residential work with budgets in excess of $3 million.

- Experience working on projects which have been honored through publication or awards is desirable.
- Work on high-profile projects and employment history with noted design firms is appreciated.
- Experience with university work is a plus.
- Is personable and helpful and enjoys the role of mentor to junior staff
