

Production/Project Architect SEARS ARCHITECTS Grand Rapids, MI.

Sears Architects is an architecture firm with a focus on high end custom residential design.

Sears Architects is looking for a production/project Architect to join our team to help with construction document production. The ideal candidate will be proficient with Vectorworks or similar CAD software. Attention to detail and excellent communication skills are a must. The ideal candidate will have an architectural degree and several years of experience with residential construction document production.

Website: www.searsarchitects.com

Please send resume and works samples to: webcontact@searsarchitects.com

No phone calls, please.