EXPERIENCE

Assistant Adjunct Professor of the Practice, School of Architecture

Fall 2021-present

University of Notre Dame, IN

Professor the practice teaching design studio to fourth year students. The studio is composed of two parts: urban & architectural. The first third of the semester was designed as a group project to design an infill neighborhood in Washington, D.C. The rest of the semester is focused on designing a hotel that is situated in the new neighborhood. This is a comprehensive studio that incorporates structural design, code analysis, and sustainability considerations.

Tippett Sease Baker Architecture

Spring 2018 - Present

Montgomery, AL

Architectural Designer & Project Manager at TSB Architecture, a newly formed residential firm founded by three former McAlpine partners. Opportunities to work in all aspects of a project ranging from programming and design to construction administration. All projects in the office are drawn by hand from presentation drawings to working drawing sets. With projects all over the country, the architectural expression is wide-ranging but rooted in traditional and vernacular architecture.

McAlpine

Summer 2015 & 2016

Montgomery, AL

Architectural intern at McAlpine Architecture, a high-end residential architecture firm. The office is focused on designing thoughtful buildings that embody the idea of the enduring, lovable home. The firm is committed to designing with the use of hand media. Work included hand and computer drawings for both client presentations and construction documents.
