

CV

Thomas Albrecht was born 1960, raised in Regensburg, an undestroyed town which still holds its original medieval character.

Study of architecture at the Technische Universität, Munich and at IIT, Chicago; as a student he was a member of the German Academic Scholarship Foundation.

Since 1986 he is working in the studio of Hilmer & Sattler (Munich and Berlin) where he is partner since 1994. The office is working mostly in housing, hotel- and museum design, reconstruction and urban planning.

Main work:

Gemäldegalerie Berlin (Old Master Paintings), Berlin, 1986 - 98

Masterplan Potsdamer Platz, Berlin, 1991

Hotel complex Elmau, 1995 – 2024

Berliner Schloss, 2009 – 22 (in collaboration with Franco Stella)

Museum Barberini, Potsdam, 2013 – 17

Garisson church, Potsdam, 2011 – 24

Thomas Albrecht holds an Honorary Ph.D. from Northumbria University, Newcastle

Since Summer 2024 he is working as the

Michael Duda professor of the practice at the University of Notre Dame, Rome

www.h-s-a.de